

Response Reports

Session: Class #6: D2, D4, and Gladwell on drinking

Class: Critical Thinking

Class Points Avg: 3.92 out of 10.00 (39.22%)

(Includes only students who took assessment)

1 D2: Which of the following tasks is not part of the process of preparing a reconstruction?
A	29%	Counting Rationales
 B	29%	Critically evaluating rationales
C	6%	Determining the scope of the conclusion
D	24%	Filling in missing claims
E	12%	Showing logical structure

2 D4: Philosophers typically define knowledge as justified belief.
A	59%	True
 B	41%	False

3 D4: In the textbook discussion of types of knowledge, which of the following was not considered a form of knowledge?
A	12%	Knowledge by Description
 B	24%	Knowledge by Insight
C	24%	Knowledge through Interpretation
D	41%	Knowledge by Acquaintance

4 According to Malcolm Gladwell in "Drinking Games," the Bolivian Camba people drink excessively and suffer from social dysfunction as a result.
A	25%	True
 B	75%	False

5 According to Malcolm Gladwell in "Drinking Games," a research study showed that
A	38%	When people drink their idea of themselves is inflated.
B	0%	When people drink their idea of themselves is deflated.
 C	62%	"Self-inflation" only occurs when there is a mismatch between your view of yourself and the world's view of you .
D	0%	"Self-deflation" only occurs when there is a mismatch between your view of yourself and the world's view of you .

Response Reports

Page 2

Session: Class #6: D2, D4, and Gladwell on drinking

Class: Critical Thinking

Class Points Avg: 3.92 out of 10.00 (39.22%)

(Includes only students who took assessment)

6	According to Malcolm Gladwell in "Drinking Games," which of the following is not a claim of "mypopia theory" ?
	A	12%	Drinking makes people more narrow minded.
	B	24%	Drunkeness is about not about losing your inhibitions.
<input checked="" type="radio"/>	C	41%	Drinking can heighten your sensitivity to some aspects of your environment.
	D	24%	Drinking impairs your ability to think about the long term consequences of your actions.